

Gig Buddies Project Assistant

(maternity cover – temporary 12 months)

Information Pack

GENERAL INFORMATION

Stay Up Late was started as an awareness raising campaign by the band Heavy Load in 2006 and featured in the feature documentary film (also called Heavy Load and incidentally one of Mark Kermode's top 5 documentaries of the 21st Century!). Heavy Load were concerned at the amount of people with learning disabilities missing out on gigs due to their support staff working inflexible shift patterns.

The exposure of the film enabled the campaign to reach a wide audience of people experiencing the same frustrations. Heavy Load didn't want their work simply to be about raising awareness and in 2011 Stay Up Late became a registered charity committed to also bringing about real change. Our aim is to promote full and active social lives for people with learning disabilities.

The geographical location of our work is predominantly in Sussex, delivering the Gig Buddies project.

However, Gig Buddies has now been replicated in other parts of the UK and in Sydney, Australia. We continue to have a high profile nationally for the campaigning side of the charities work.

All of our income is derived from fundraising, and we rely on our well-established community links to achieve this.

Although the charity is still growing, we have a strong commitment to developing innovative projects that will enable people with learning disabilities to enjoy full and active social lives, and involve people with learning disabilities in the design, delivery and development of these projects.

OUR VISION AND VALUES

Our vision

That learning disabled people and people with autism should live the lives they want, stay up late and have fun. We believe they should be included within all aspects of society and their communities.

Mission – we fight for the right to party

We do this through our projects and through campaigning:

- We campaign against inflexible practices and attitudes that prevent people from living the lives that they want.
- Finding solutions to the barriers that people face when trying to have an active social life, particularly around choosing their own bedtimes.
- Demonstrating what is possible through projects such as Gig Buddies.

Our values – keeping it punk!

Inclusive - We value the different strengths that people bring. The people we work with are front and centre stage.

Fun – We are creative and innovative, using humour as a way of provoking debate and generating change. Our work is serious fun.

Disruptive – We are risk-takers, responsive and resourceful. We are outspoken activists and make change happen.

Community – We promote collective responsibility and belonging. And we mean it!

Integrity – We work in a way that reflects how we want the world to be.

Focussed – We pick our fights carefully. We're a small organisation so we need to be agile and won't be everything to everyone.

WHAT STAY UP LATE IS REALLY GOOD AT

- Strong brand and reputation
 - Simple purpose
 - Very strong awareness and reputation relative to size
 - Unique approach and 'punk' ethos

- Changing the narrative for people with learning disabilities
- Innovation: Gig Buddies and Social Franchise
- Participation and inclusion of people with learning disabilities
- A great place to work – people love the cause

(Sociable hours as we like to call them!)

The salary is £11,277 (pro rata) based on £18,795 per annum paid monthly in arrears. You will be paid on the last working day of the month.
