

Application notes for Gig Buddies and Quality Checker roles

People with learning disabilities, and/or autism, from our advisory groups will be part of the shortlisting and interview process for these positions.

Please make sure you've taken note of this guidance when completing your application.

<input type="checkbox"/>	Please complete the application form (please note that we are unable to accept CVs). When completing the application form please try and use the 'Person Specification' headings to organise your answer. Please try and be short and to the point with your responses and use examples of your experience to illustrate these.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Please make a 60 second video entitled 'What makes my heart sing' This does not need to be a high quality production in any way. It can just be made on your phone. What we want to find out is what makes you tick as a person, and why you'd be perfect for these roles. (You may want to be creative, or just talk to the camera, it's entirely up to you).
<input type="checkbox"/>	Upload the video to Youtube, Vimeo or Dropbox. Or send via www.wetransfer.com to paul@stayuplate.org

The closing date for both positions is 5pm on Thursday 12th April.

Interviews for the positions will be held on:

Gig Buddies worker – Friday 20th April

Quality Checking Coordinator – Monday 23rd April

We will be in touch with people we want to invite for interview by Monday 16th April.

Whilst we have advertised both posts as separate roles we would be open to combining the roles but would need an applicant to demonstrate the skills that they have, and we would also need to ensure that you could work in a way that was boundaried, enabling you to undertake both roles well.
